Atomics Lab Speaker Here On Monday

Torkil H. Jensen, staff member of General Atomic's Laboratories, will be a visiting lecturer at SJS Monday.

Jensen will give lectures, hold informal meetings with students and assist faculty members with curriculum and research problems. He will visit under a program to stimulate interest in physics, sponsored by the American Association of Physics Teachers and the American Institute of Physics.

Jensen, a native of Denmark, is an experimental physicist working on the fusion research program of the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation and General Atomic Division of General Dynamics Corporation.

From 1957 until he joined General Atomic, Jensen was with the Danish Atomic Energy Commission's Riso Research Laboratories where he conducted research in plasma physics. He earned his M.A. degree from the Polytechnical Institute in Copenhagen in 1956.

Inaugural Ball Bids Unneeded For Saturday

Bids for Saturday night's Inaugural Ball are no longer required for SJS students and faculty, according to Jeff Cole, chairman of the Social Affairs Committee.

The event will climax the week-long inaugural festivities Saturday.

Dress for the occasion is formal with dark suits for men and long or short dresses for women.

The ball will take place from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Music will be provided by the Dick Foy Band and the AFROTC and the ROTC will form an honor guard for Pres. Robert D. Clark.

Tickets Available For 'Day of Jazz' Here Tomorrow

Tickets are on sale for the second annual "Day of Jazz" evening concert tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the Civic Auditorium.

Tickets can be purchased at $1 for students and $1.50 for the general public, in front of the cafeteria, in M108 and at the door.

Pacific Coast jazz artists Bud Shank and Clare Fischer will be featured attractions at the performance.

Daytime activities will include competition events among numerous jazz combos and ensembles from California educational institutions.

Activities during the day are open to the public free of charge.

SPARDI DEDICATED . . . The $2,000 cast aluminum Spardi statue was dedicated yesterday morning. Dr. Richard G. Tansey, professor of art, and College President Robert D. Clark, spoke at the dedication ceremonies. Sculptor Daryle Webb, SJS graduate, was commissioned a little over a year ago to construct the seven foot art piece. Dedication ceremonies were handled by the ASB Art Planning Committee. The controversial statue was erected on its four-foot base during the Easter vacation.

Prof Dedicates 'Unique' Spardi

"The Spardi statue is a technical achievement of a unique kind," said Dr. Richard G. Tansey, professor of art, as he joined SJS Pres. Robert D. Clark, in formally dedicating the seven-foot Spardi statue.

Dedication ceremonies were held yesterday morning in the Art Quad.

More than 300 students and faculty members heard Dr. Tansey greet sculptor Daryle Webb, SJS graduate, "on the threshold of a great career."

Dr. Clark referred to beautification of the campus saying, "Student Council has the good sense, the good taste and the courage to take this first step."

"It is a rather remarkable and unhappy fact," Dr. Clark stated, "that SJS should have celebrated its 100th birthday before any sculptured form should be mounted in one of its many courtyards."

Dr. Clark informed the assembly a little over a year ago to construct the $2,000 cast aluminum statue to represent "the Spirit of Sparta."

"Very shortly," the president said, "we shall begin in this very forecourt the construction of what promises to be a magnificent new College Union."

"Let us seize the inspiration of this moment and the opportunity of the next to make art—sculpture, painting, fountains, murals—as much a part of our essential education on this campus as the books we read and the lectures we hear."

Webb was commissioned by council a little over a year ago to construct the $2,000 cast aluminum statue to represent "the Spirit of Sparta."

ASB Interviews Tuesday Noon In College Union

Interviews for two appointive positions on the ASB Executive Council will be held Tuesday from 2-5 p.m. in the College Union.

The positions are personnel officer and public relations and information officer.

The personnel officer interviews applicants for all available ASB positions — committee members, chairmen and vacated elective positions. Term of office is one year.

Public relations and information officer applicants are expected to have some knowledge of journalism and public relations for this salaried position requiring four hours per day, five days per week of work.

Salary for this position is $2,500 per year and the job commences with the inauguration of the new ASB president.

Applications are now available in the College Union for these positions.

Stanton Accuses Dumke, Trustees

Charge: 'Attempt To Punish'

By MARK THAYER

The ruckus raised at last weekend's statewide Academic Senate continues to reverberate around the state.

Assemblyman William F. Stanton (D-San Jose) has accused Chancellor Glenn S. Dumke and the Board of Trustees of "attempting to punish faculty and student groups which fail to bow to the trustees' every whim."

Stanton is one of 12 legislators opposed to Assembly Bill 853, a bill designed to give the Board of Trustees authority to regulate the use of the name "California State Colleges" and the names of the individual colleges.

Dumke's office had no immediate comment on Stanton's charge.

'PROFOUND DISRESPECT'

Stanton said the bill "amply demonstrates Mr. Dumke's profound disrespect for the faculty and students and his determination to throttle all criticism and opposition."

The Regents at the University of California have had similar authority over the use of the university's name for nearly 20 years.

A spokesman for the chancellor's office indicated AB 853 was introduced by Assemblyman Don Mulford (R-Berkeley) for

SJS Hosts Peace Corps Once More

San Jose State has been selected for the second time since 1962 to serve as a training center for Peace Corps candidates from all over the nation, according to the program director, Dr. James W. Thornton, SJS professor of education and assistant to the president.

The anticipated 300 volunteers who will train here this summer is one of the largest groups in the nation to assemble at one location.

The Peace Corps training Center headquarters will be at Building Z, Ninth and San Carlos Streets.

A vigorous 10-week program of physical and academic conditioning will take place from June 19-Aug. 27.

The majority of instructors for the training session will be SJS faculty members. About 30 teachers from the Philippines and 15 experienced Peace Corps workers will serve as assistants.

This summer's program, according to Dr. Thornton, "is part of the selection process. Trainees must satisfactorily pass the courses and prove themselves to be physically fit before assignments are made."

Those persons selected for service will become co-teachers in public elementary schools in the Philippine Republic, emphasizing instruction in English, mathematics and general science.

Trainees will follow a strict schedule of classes, Monday-Saturday, beginning at 7:30 in the morning and continuing to 9 p.m. daily.

Lower Division Filled

SJS Closes Its Doors To Fall Term Applicants

By CAROL CARD

Applications for the fall semester, 1965, can no longer be accepted from first-time freshmen, freshmen transfers, and sophomore transfer students, according to Ralph Cummings, dean of admissions.

More than 14,000 applications have been received for fall semester. The entire lower division limit, as set by the enrollment quota system, has been reached.

Students seeking admission to the upper division level are urged to apply immediately. Some openings still may be available, according to Roy Delpier, admissions officer.

PROCESSING BACKLOG

"We are still processing a backlog of applications, but we feel it is only fair to warn prospective candidates of their chances and the limits we have reached," said Delpier.

The admission office is including a letter of explanation of the enrollment limitation with applications requested now and notices of refusal.

The letter emphasizes that California's ten-year "crash program of building and development" of colleges and universities cannot accommodate the "crest of the wave of thousands of applicants."

SEVERE LIMITATION

Enrollment at SJS and many other state colleges has been severely limited for fall '65 semester, by order of the state college Board of Trustees.

Local reasons for the quota include "the most grave staffing crisis in SJS history," which is attributed to the comparatively low salary schedule, and the limits of existing faculty, facilities, and allotted finances.

ALTERNATIVES

Admission officials urge students who cannot be accepted at SJS this year to pursue their educational objectives through five alternative methods:

- Attend junior colleges in the requirements in the major have not been completed.

- Enroll in SJS extension classes by contacting the campus office by mail or phone.

- Register for either a six-week or a ten-week Summer Session program. Applications are due at the SJS Summer Session Office by June 1.

- Attend a state college where space is available. All transcripts and admission information submitted to SJS will be forwarded to another state campus of the student's choice, upon request. Available colleges are listed in the lobby of the Administration Building.

- Attend a private college or university.

Johnson Receives Requested Money From Congress

By JOHN A. GOLDSWORTH

United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congress handed President Johnson a $700 million vote of confidence Thursday for his Viet Nam policies but said plainly it was not writing a blank check for an all-out ground war in the Far East.

The Senate approved Johnson's request of more money for the war in South Viet Nam by a vote of 87 to 3, just two days after Johnson requested it. The House approved it Wednesday by a 408 to 7 vote.

Since the Senate made no change in the measure, it went directly to the White House.

The Senate vote came after some bitter criticism of Johnson and some speeches of deep misgiving.

Sen. Ernest Gruening (D-Alaska), charged that Johnson was dragging the Congress around "like a dog on a leash."

YAF To Sponsor Day-Long Meet At Oakland Site

Young Americans for Freedom (YAF) will sponsor an all-day conference tomorrow at the Edge-water Inn in Oakland, according to Jack Cox, SJS student and western regional chairman of YAF.

Speakers include Congressman Ed Foreman of Texas, member of the national YAF advisory board; Mike Goldwater, son of former Senator Barry Goldwater; Don Warden, chairman of the Afro-American Association; and Dr. Stephan Possony, director of international studies at Stanford's Hoover Institution on War, Revolution and Peace.

Seven-Hour Council Session

$40,000 Budgets Passed

Budget after budget was approved by Student Council Wednesday as more than $40,000 in requests passed in review.

In total, over $285,000 in budgets must come before the student legislators before the new council takes office May 15.

Singers on TV

Campus folksingers will go before Bay Area television audience Saturday morning when Channel 11, KNTV San Jose, broadcasts "Perspective," the San Jose State College-produced TV program.

The show will begin at 9 a.m. and will feature seven SJS folk singers and musicians in a half-hour presentation of standard and original songs.

approval was the Intramural budget of $8,314.50. The approved budget is almost $1,300 over this year's budget allocation.

The working budget for the ASB Executive Council of $6,800 for 1965-66 was given council's approval. The budget includes increases in travel expenses, high school tour programs and public relations.

The $5,600 budget for the ASB Lecture Committee got the go ahead without a hitch. Council followed the Financial Advisory Board's (FAB) recommendation in granting the request.

The Social Affairs Committee will operate on a $4,400 budget next year. Council and FAB cut the committee's budget $232 from last year's.

Other major budgets approved in Wednesday's marathon session (almost seven hours) were: Visiting Scholar Committee, $3,274; Spartan Programs Committee, $3,000; and Freshman Camp, $2,743.

Big budgets yet to come include Men's Intercollegiate Athletics, Spartan Daily and the College Union.

In other council action, approval of three council bills topped the agenda.

A bill was passed establishing a Distinguished Scholar in Residence Committee. Purpose of the committee is to supervise and conduct a scholar in residence program at SJS. The bill was introduced by Wes Watkins, junior representative.

Flicks Tonight

Friday Flicks will feature Paul Newman in "Prize" tonight at 7 and 9:30 in TH55. The film is a mystery-comedy concerned with awarding the Nobel Prize in Stockholm.

Voting Starts Next Monday For Ugliest Man on Campus

The search for Ugliest Man On Campus (UMOC) candidates has ended. Thirteen hopefuls have been cornered, photographed and set free.

Seven of these "creatures" have been sponsored by women's living centers, which shows women have an eye for beauty.

Photographs of the UMOC candidates will be displayed on Seventh Street Monday through Friday from 9 p.m. to 3 p.m., May 10-14.

Students are invited to look them over, according to Tony Hall, a spokesman for Alpha Phi Omega, men's service fraternity and sponsor of the contest.

Judging will be held Friday, and results will be released Monday. The sponsoring living center of the winner will receive a Motorola color television set and a perpetual trophy. The top three finalists in this "beauty contest" will also win trophies.

Theater Offering

"Spoon River Anthology" by Edgar Lee Masters will be the Readers' Theater production at 8:15 tonight and tomorrow evening in the Studio Theater.

Tickets available at the College Theater box office are 75 cents for students and $1.50 general admission.

Editorial

Election Code Ambiguous

Campus elections at SJS are governed by an ambiguous election code that needs immediate corrections to prevent a repeat of so-called "election code violations." The recent ASB elections were spotted with several charges of violations, but loopholes, lack of proper interpretation and other ambiguities prevented prosecution by the ASB Judiciary.

Ken Lane, election board chairman, and several members of his committee agree that changes definitely should be made to prevent a constant recurrence of "code violations."

Student Council should consider the election code and recommend changes and additions.

Certainly council will want to evaluate the worth of the present code, especially sections that repeatedly are violated.

Section III, A., states candidates must register with the election board prior to advertising on campus posters, handouts, etc.

Yet, before the mandatory meeting of all candidates, advertising begins and campaigns get under way.

Academic Uproar Felt in Wisconsin

MADISON, Wis. (UPI)—Wisconsin, the state which produced the liberalism of the La Follette and the anti-Communism of Sen. Joe McCarthy, is feeling the backlash of the academic uproar of the 60's.

Charges that Communist influences are abroad on the campus of the state's university are colliding head-on with cries of "McCarthyism."

Very much involved in the turmoil at the university is the W.E.B. DuBois Club—a congregation of 30 or so self-proclaimed "Marxist Socialists" whose voices attract attention far greater than their number on the campus by Lake Mendota.

At the same time, 6,000 of Wisconsin University's 26,000 students put their names to a resolution backing the nation's policy in Viet Nam. Professor Donald Tarr said the response was "the result of exasperation with left wing groups and their sometimes downright lies."

Professor Explains Original Thought

Editor:

People who are not careful may get VD.

Proofreaders who are not careful, may let thought be destroyed.

My letter on VD was mangled to read: "How can we have sex that free with VD?" I had written: "How can we have sex that's free without VD?"

Most VD is free, but is very expensive and socially destructive. Free sex and VD go together; to help avoid VD, avoid free sex, or even sex that is marketed. Our social formula for sex that's free without VD is matrimony.

YR President Tells Of SEE Power Grab

Editor:

As one who has been, in the main, sympathetic to the stated goals of the recently-formed Students for Excellence in Education (SEE), I was indeed surprised to hear proposed at a recent meeting what amounts to a power grab by that organization.

I refer to the meeting of student organization presidents and representatives in TH55 on May 4, convened for the purpose of gathering support for the proposed faculty protest. Toward the conclusion of that meeting an interesting proposal was set forth. It was suggested that the body of student organization presidents and/or representatives—which now has no standing with the student body or the administration—should meet regularly as a student academic senate. This senate, it was suggested, would be more responsive to the students than the current ASB government, and soon would be influencing college policy and making some policy itself.

The question came up as to who would preside over or chair the student academic senate. Phil Whitten, president of SEE, proposed that the executive board of his organization should preside over the student senate, since the goals of SEE and the goals of the student senate would be in such close agreement.

Aside from SEE's stooges, intelligent people at that meeting had serious doubts about the student academic senate, controlled by one organization for its own purposes, which eventually would replace the current ASB government. The question that many asked was: What has this to do with excellence in education? The answer is, of course, nothing.

It would appear, then, that goals of SEE are very long range, and, in this case, have little to do with "excellence in education." The time has perhaps arrived when SEE, whatever its stated purpose, must be prevented from carrying into effect those aims and goals that have nothing to do with excellence in education.

TRACK

The Spartan tracksters will defend their West Coast Relay championship when they depart for Fresno tomorrow.

The meet is a two day affair, but the college events won't begin until 2 p.m. Saturday. The feature event Friday will take place at 7 p.m. when Berkeley High School goes after the national distance medley high school record.

SJS will enter a 440 relay team, an 880 relay, a distance medley relay, and possibly a mile relay. SJS will send a representative in practically all the open track events and the field events.

Five 50 foot jumpers will compete in the triple jump. Lester Bond and Craig Fergus will face Mahoney Samuels of USC, Charles Craig of Fresno State, and Henry Lawson of Sacramento State.

Among the stars competing in open track events will be Bernie Rivers of New Mexico in the sprints and Bob Day of UCLA in the distance events. (Day ran the best distance double in track history when he ran a 4:02 mile and an 8:35 two mile).

Two thousand competitors are entered in the meet.

WATER POLO

With 13 days of spring practice under their belts, and only one week left to go, Coach Lee Walton's water poloists are conducting their spring practice sessions with the utmost fervor.

Mike McLenan won the push pass decathlon event with a distance of 47 feet. Kevin Currin placed second with 45 feet, and Mike Fagg garnered third victory spot with 42 feet.

Dominators of the scrimmages were Mike McLenan and Steve Hansen.

"McLenan turned in a brilliant performance," Walton said. "He played a real thinking man's game. Mike is only a sophomore, but if he continues on his present performance trend, he is a sure prospect to make next year's starting team.

GOLF

The San Jose State Golf team wanders over to Palo Alto tomorrow to meet the Stanford Indians in the next-to-the-last tuneup for the upcoming NCAA Championships in June.

Stanford was defeated by SJS April 23 at the Almaden Country Club and the Indians are out to see that it doesn't happen again. However, if past performance is any indication, it will happen again as the Spartans will take an 11-1-1 season record into the match.

Monday, the Spartan golfers will round out the dual match season by taking on the University of British Columbia in a 1 p.m. match at the San Jose Country Club.

SOCCER

Coach Julie Menendez' soccer men will meet Menlo College in a scrimmage, tomorrow on the South Campus at 10 a.m.

Last Saturday, the Spartan booters conducted an intersquad scrimmage, in which the Blue Squad defeated the Gold Squad 8-6.

"Both squads are evenly matched, and the scrimmage was quite satisfactory," Menendez commented.

The scrimmage was the first such intersquad contest of the spring practice season.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

The Northern California Invitational Women's Collegiate Tennis Tournament will be held today on the Spartan tennis courts at 9:30 a.m.

Finals and semifinals will be played tomorrow at the courts. Entries from San Jose State College include Martha Mitchell in singles, Anne Drees, Sharon Stebbins, Sandy George and Camille Quenneville in doubles.

Entries for singles and doubles have been received from 11 Northern California colleges including Fresno State College, Chico State College, University of the Pacific, Mills College, California State College at Hayward and University of California at Berkeley.

Others are San Francisco State College, Stanford University, University of California at Davis, and University of Santa Clara.

Spartacamp Post Interviews Today

Applications for the position of Spartacamp chairman are now available in the College Union. Interviews will be held today from 1:45 to 4 p.m. in the College Union.

Applicants must have been a past Spartacamp counselor or committee member, according to Bob Pitcher, ASB personnel officer.

Preparations will begin now for the Spring 1966 two-day camp, which will be open to all students and will cover topical issues confronting college students.

Modern Dance Concert Tonight

Tonight and Saturday night will feature an Orchestral modern dance concert at 8:15 p.m. in PER262.

Tickets may be bought in the Student Affairs Business Office, B1, extension 2672 at $1 each.

Orchestral modern dance group, and the dance production class will perform during the concert under the direction of Mrs. Carol Haws and Miss June Eby, instructors of physical education.

Five Men Needed For 'Spardi' Mascot

Five men will soon be selected for the position of college mascot "Spardi." An informal meeting will take place Monday from 2-3:30 p.m. in the College Union for all interested male students who meet the height qualification of 5-feet, 9-inches.

The position is for the school year 1965-66 and involves service throughout the year at various events.
